

XPEL Announces Change to Board of Directors

San Antonio, TX – July 23, 2021 – XPEL, Inc. (Nasdaq: XPEL) (the "Company"), a global provider of protective films and coatings, today announced that John Constantine resigned from the Company's Board of Directors.

Ryan Pape, President and Chief Executive Officer of XPEL, stated, "We thank John Constantine for his many years of service on the Board of Directors. John was an early XPEL shareholder and has been a key contributor to our progress, providing important perspective and insight as our Company has evolved and grown. We wish him all the best as he steps away from the Board."

John Constantine stated, "It has been the honor of a lifetime representing the shareholders of XPEL. After 11 years of service on the Board of Directors and as a shareholder of XPEL for nearly 20 years, I have made a commitment to transition into retirement and focus on my family. I am leaving this position filled with pride and confidence in XPEL, our Board of Directors, executives, and employees who have built an amazing company. I wish the company continued growth and success."

The Company will begin a search for Mr. Constantine's replacement.
